Brigadier General Walter Duggan and Mrs. Duggan were the guests of honor at a delightful dinner given Tuesday by Mrs. William Seabury of Westmoreland place. The table's centerpiece was roses, and rose cards marked places for the complimented guests and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tweed, Mrs. H. I. Latham, Walter Sellers of New York and Walter Howe.

A pretty event of Easter week was the card evening given Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Newhouse of 808 North Sixth avenue, in honor of Miss Lola Stroud of Nova Scotia, who is passing the spring here. Lilies and greenery were used effectively in decoration. Thomas Prescott made the highest score at hearts. Those present were: Miss Stroud, Mr. and Mrs. William Sealey, Miss Florence Maine, Miss Mary Worley, Miss Mabel McNeil, Guy Alsap, Roy Murray, Thomas Prescott and R. B. Thompson.

Miss Eleanor Sloan made Miss Florence Herndon the motif for a delightful bridge Friday, when she entertained Mrs. H. B. Linney, Mrs. Frank Hildreth, Mrs. Colora Martin Stoddard, Mrs. Joseph McLezer, Miss Ruth Jesson, Miss Esther Willis, Miss Ruth Dorris, Miss Florence Gifford, Miss Mabel Hocker and Miss Regina Dorris.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Goodrich gave a charmingly appointed picnic supper Thursday evening at their Central avenue residence. The centerpiece was a large cluster of Cecil Bruner roses and the dainty flowers, with sweet peas in the coral tones, were scattered about the table. Those who enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Atha, Mr. and Mrs. Colt Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Green, Mrs. Charles McHugh, Miss Elizabeth McHugh, Miss Margaret Adams, Winsor Day, William McCord, Irving De R. Miss Ruth Jesson gave an informal luncheon Thursday in honor of Miss Florence Herndon, a much-tetted visitor.

Mrs. W. J. Rife has sent out cards for a luncheon to take place Tuesday at her residence, 705 North Central avenue.

Surpassing in brilliance any event of the season was the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. William Gardigues Bartraff and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tweed, Wednesday evening, at the Woman's club.

The reception hall had an artistic arrangement of roses, ranging from delicate tones of pink to the deepest shades of the American beauty. A contrasting decorative scheme was in the dining room, where dainty white roses were festooned about the room, but it was in the auditorium that the most elaborate details were carried out. Grasses of such a height as to partially conceal the orchestra that occupied the stage softened the glow of the footlights and formed an effective background for the receiving party. Hanging baskets filled with perfect pink roses, combined with bouquets of blooming spring blossoms, lined the walls, and in the odd little nooks and corners were jardiniere and baskets overflowing with roses and sweet peas.

Among the handsome gowns worn was that of Mrs. Tweed, who looked charming in black lace over white satin. Her jewels were diamonds.

Mrs. Hartraff was beautifully costumed in black crepe meteor. The brilliance of gold lace was veiled in black chiffon. She wore diamond and pearl ornaments.

Mrs. Dwight B. Heard made an attractive appearance in pale blue messaline embroidered in pearls and turquoise. A contrasting touch of color was given the costume in a side veiling of black chiffon.

Mrs. Isaac Taft Stoddard was attired in black velvet. Her ornaments were diamonds.

Mrs. Robert Wallace Craig wore an exquisite creation of pink messaline and silver filigree on black tulle. In her coiffure she wore a wreath of roses. Her jewels were pearls.

Mrs. Roy S. Goodrich was stunning in white chiffon, the tunic of which was bordered in leaves of black, outlined in crystals. This veiled the white satin, from which fell in long lines the green satin that hemmed the costume. Mrs. Goodrich wore pearls and emeralds.

Mrs. Simon Oberfelder was becomingly gowned in grey chiffon over peacock blue. Diamonds were the jewels worn.

Mrs. Walter Bennett looked well in grey crepe meteor and silver lace.

Mrs. E. B. Carpenter was handsome in black lace over white messaline and a beautiful pearl necklace.

Mrs. John H. Page was very lovely in pink crepe.

Mrs. Herbert Atha wore a white spangled gown.

Mrs. Hal Bennett wore an effective costume of pink chiffon.

Mrs. Joseph McLezer was smartly costumed in white satin and point lace.

Mrs. Sidney Ross looked exceedingly well in a white brocade and Venetian lace studded with pearls and rhinestones. The skirt and train were edged with ermine.

Mrs. Laurence Holden was attractive in a frock of pink embroidery.

Mrs. George Halm wore white chiffon elaborately embroidered in pink and green.

Mrs. David Goldberg was prettily costumed in pink chiffon, embellished with crystals.

Mrs. W. K. James was in an effective blue crepe meteor gown.

Mrs. H. B. Wilkinson wore yellow chiffon.

Mrs. Homer King was in blue crepe and net lace.

Mrs. Colora Martin Stoddard wore blue chiffon cloth.

Mrs. E. J. Bennett was handsome in lavender chiffon and silver lace.

Miss Marjorie Carpenter was beautiful in yellow chiffon ornamented in crystals.

Miss Ruth Dorris was smartly gowned in white satin with a tunic of pearls and crystals.

Miss Elizabeth McHugh wore white brocade.

Miss Selma Goldberg wore a dainty frock of pink chiffon; the crystal embroidered tunic was veiled pink.

Miss Margaret Adams was much admired in black chiffon.

Miss Holly Drake was in blue brocade.

Miss Rena Dorris was lovely in white embroidered crepe over pink.

Miss Florence Gifford wore gray, veiled in blue and white chiffon.

Miss Esther Willis was gowned in scarlet chiffon.

Miss Lou Ella Archer wore a Venetian lace gown.

A FREQUENT RESULT OF THE HOP.

and it is being done in such a manner as to be devoid of publicity. In the care of free text books they also declared the teacher would not have sufficient time to devote to her regular class work and health conditions here was another feature of the opposition. Mrs. T. E. Irvine was elected president of the association and the next gathering has been called for Thursday, May 2.

Important changes to be made in the club calendar for next year were considered at a business meeting of the Woman's club Tuesday. The discussion will be continued this Tuesday at three o'clock and all members are urged to be present.

"The Coming Woman" was presented at the Arizona School of Music Friday evening under the direction of Mrs. Caroline Henshaw, director of the department of expression. The amusing farce was well acted and staged.

Members of the College club enjoyed a "college feast" and a day of interesting reminiscence at the residence of Mrs. A. W. Morrill, 144 Portland Place Wednesday. There was an informal discussion of the work for the coming year but the greater part of the time was given over to a general good time and plans for a May day picnic at the Henry Gate country place on North Seventh avenue. The membership now includes twenty-four, and any one desirous of joining the club should notify the president, Mrs. C. W. Jay, red. Two years or more in college is the only requirement.

Whether another member will be chosen delegate to represent the Friday Club at the biennial besides the president, Mrs. Louis H. Chalmers, will be discussed at a business meeting of the club this week. Mrs. James H. McClintock who was to attend the federation is abroad and will not return to America in time to be present at the gathering. Several other important matters will receive consideration at this meeting.

Anyone desiring to become a member of the Musicians club will have to pass an examination before a committee appointed by the president. This was decided at a meeting at the residence of Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson Monday and its object is that every member of the club might appear on the program during the year. Next year's study will be German music, the American and Russian composers have received attention of the club and their works delightfully interpreted at a series of concerts. Officers were elected at this meeting Mrs. H. H. Stone being chosen president, Mrs. Courtney A. Camp vice president, Mrs. L. E. Hewins secretary and treasurer and Mrs. W. E. Duffly librarian.

Tuesday evening Miss Sharlot M. Hall will give the closing talk of the series she has been giving before the Woman's club on "Travels Through Arizona." The lectures have been illustrated with the stereopticon. Members of the legislature have been especially invited by the club and guest tickets may be obtained for twenty-five cents.

A business meeting will be held by the Harmony club Wednesday afternoon when annual donations to the Florence Crittenton Home, St. Luke's Home and Bethany Home will be made. The club has contributed to the scholarship fund besides doing much philanthropic work this season.

The indoor picnic and pound party given the Florence Crittenton Home by the W. C. T. U. was successful in every detail. The Mesa and Tempe unions joined the local union and passed a day at the home. In the afternoon an interesting miscellaneous program was presented.

The Arizona School of Music, Mrs. Shirley Christy director gave a delightful concert recital Tuesday evening. The program was arranged by C. R. Nuetzel and the most artistic feature was the cantata "Queen of the Sea" which has been in preparation many weeks. The program follows:

AN OLD SONG RESUNG.

Down by the salley gardens my love and I did meet; She passed the salley gardens with little snow white feet. She bid me take love easy as the leaves grow on the tree; But I, being young and foolish, with her would not agree.

In a field by the river my love and I did stand; And on my leaning shoulder she laid her snow white hand. She bid me take life easy as the grass grows on the weirs; But I was young and foolish and now am full of tears.

—William Butler Yeats.
